

Join us for the 3rd Annual Kansas Cattle Drive

Buhler, Kansas on February 17, 2018

Speaker & booth topics include:

- * Beef industry economics
- * Bull selection
- * Working dog demonstration
- * Q&A with K-State Veterinarians
- * K-State Research & Extension
- * USDA/Prescribed Burn Assoc.
- * Chuckwagon cooking class
- * Semen company representatives

Plus More Speakers, Topics and Tradeshow!

GUEST SPEAKERS:

Dr. Temple Grandin: Author, world-renowned autism spokesperson, consultant to the livestock industry on animal behavior and Professor of Animal Science at Colorado State University. Dr. Grandin will speak twice at this year's Kansas Cattle Drive. The first speech will be on livestock handling and the second will be "Different Minds", which covers the spectrum of autism to end the day.

Dr. Clint Rusk: Dr. Rusk is Head of the Department of Animal Science at Oklahoma State University. He grew up on a ranch near Sun City, KS. Dr. Rusk had a very successful judging career as well as a being one of the best collegiate judging coaches. The Kansas Cattle Drive is lucky to have Dr. Rusk as our guest!

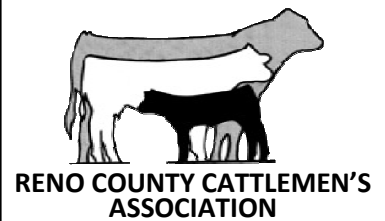

Free to the public! Families, consumers, and producers encouraged to attend!

Time: 9:00 AM—5:00 PM Place: Buhler High School, 611 N Main, Buhler, KS

facebook.com/
kansascattledrive

9:00am	Unload animals
9:00-10:00am	Welcome (Free rolls & coffee)
9:00-3:00	Tradeshow
9:00-12:30	Chuckwagon cooking class *limited space registration required
12:00-2:00	BQA
9:30-10:00	Dog show
10:00-11:00	Dr. Grandin *Livestock handling
11:00-12:00	Association meetings
11:00-1:30	Concessions
11:00-Noon	Branding your Ranch
Noon- 1:00	Lunch
2:00- 3:00	Clint Rusk
2:30-3:00	Dog demo
3:30-4:30	Dr. Grandin *Different Minds talk

Please join us for the BQA meeting. It will be 12:00-2:00 with lunch provided if you register before Feb. 9th. The BQA training is free and open to anyone. The producers will become BQA certified

- Lunch
- Classroom training
- Live necropsy
- Q&A Time with a K-State Veterinarian

Register for the Chuckwagon Cooking Class by February 9th.

$25.00/person (18 and over)

Groups w/ 5 or more $125.00

Limited cookware - register soon!

Each person/team will be loaned a set of cast iron cookware to make a lunch for your group.

The tradeshow will be in the old gym this year. There is limited space available - first come first serve. For more info and registration for the tradeshow please contact John Clark at jclark@usd313.org

For more information on Sponsoring the 2018 Kansas Cattle Drive Please contact Darren Busick.

darrenbusick@ksu.edu or 620-662-2371

